

Finding Your Dream Job

CHAPTER 6, LESSON 5

NAME

DATE

DIRECTIONS

Follow the steps to discover and research careers that interest you, and then fill out the charts provided.

Part One

Use the charts below to list your talents (what you're good at) and your passions (what you love to do).

RANK	TALENT
1
2
3

PASSION	DESCRIPTION

Finding Your Dream Job

CHAPTER 6, LESSON 5

Write down three careers that interest you based on your talents and passions. If you need help thinking of career ideas, use the internet to look up potential career options that relate to what you recorded in your charts.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Part Two

Use reputable and reliable sources on the internet to research the three careers you wrote down in Part One. Consider how your talents and passions listed above relate to the careers you chose. Keep in mind that there are careers you might not have heard of before—this is an opportunity to discover them and find out more information about them.

Part Three

Use your research from Part Two to help you complete the forms on the three following pages.

Occupation #1:

Median Pay
Entry-Level Education
How to Become a _____ (education, certifications, training, etc.)
Required Work Experience Prior to Employment
On-the-Job Training
Number of Job Openings in This Field in the U.S.
What People in This Occupation Do
Work Environment
Level of Demand for Workers in This Field
Similar Occupations (Compare the job duties, education, job growth, and pay of similar occupations.)

Occupation #2:

Median Pay
Entry-Level Education
How to Become a _____ (education, certifications, training, etc.)
Required Work Experience Prior to Employment
On-the-Job Training
Number of Job Openings in This Field in the U.S.
What People in this Occupation Do
Work Environment
Level of Demand for Workers in This Field
Similar Occupations (Compare the job duties, education, job growth, and pay of similar occupations.)

Occupation #3:

Median Pay
Entry-Level Education
How to Become a _____ (education, certifications, training, etc.)
Required Work Experience Prior to Employment
On-the-Job Training
Number of Job Openings in This Field in the U.S.
What People in This Occupation Do
Work Environment
Level of Demand for Workers in This Field
Similar Occupations (Compare the job duties, education, job growth, and pay of similar occupations.)

Finding Your Dream Job

CHAPTER 6, LESSON 5

Part Four

From the three occupations you researched, choose the occupation you think you would enjoy the most as your dream job. Then, write a purpose statement describing which talents and passions you'll use to pursue your dream job and the results you want to achieve by doing so.

I WILL USE WHAT I DO BEST—_____—TO DO WHAT I LOVE MOST—_____—SO THAT I
CAN SEE THESE RESULTS: _____.